THE PROFESSIONAL STAFF

Head Golf Professional

Robert Speaker

Since 2000, Robert has held various positions at Deer Creek Golf Club. Presently, he is the Head Golf Professional and Director of Instruction. Previously Robert served as our Club Manager and Assistant Golf Professional.

Robert taught 32 years in the public school system before turning professional in 2002. Robert has both Bachelor and Masters Degrees in Education from Illinois State University. During his first years of teaching, he coached high school golf and tennis at Bloom High School. In 1978 Robert began teaching at Prairie State College. He was the first NJCAA golf coach at the College and qualified golfers for the National Junior College Championships. He retired from Prairie State College as a full Professor in 2000. Prairie State College has asked Robert to again coach the College Golf Team in 2006.

Roberts many years of teaching have made him a very patient instructor. He always has the student's success in mind. Contact either Robert or the golf shop staff to set up a lesson

Assistant Golf Professional

Charles Chaffee

Charles began his study of the golf industry in 2001, enrolling in the Golf Management Program at South Suburban College in South Holland, Illinois. One of the two internships he completed was working at Deer Creek Golf Club in 2002. After completing Methods of Teaching and six total courses in the Golf Management Program, Charles interned with Bill Abrams, PGA Teaching Professional, in the summer of 2004 and 2005. Charles entered the PGA apprentice program in 2006.

Before turning professional, Charles worked in sales, banking, financial consulting, and commercial loan brokerage. Charles has Bachelor and Masters Degrees from the University of Wisconsin – Madison, specializing in finance, investments and banking.

Charles loves the game of golf and enjoys sharing his enthusiasm with others. He looks forward to seeing old and meeting new friends at Deer Creek. Charles understands that the mental approach to the game is equally important in the enjoyment of golf, and teaches with this philosophy in mind.
